

HDFS 3193 - Practicum in Human Development and Family Science
(Instructor: Anita Parker)

A practicum provides a student an opportunity to research/explore areas of interest with an instructor. In order to successfully complete a practicum, a student needs to be self-motivated and possess a strong work ethic.

Students often inquire about the time investment expected in 3193. Acceptance of a student in this course is by permission only and students must demonstrate both a need for - and a commitment to - the course in order to gain entry. This information is in no way comprehensive.

TYPE OF ACTIVITY	MINIMUM TIME DEVOTED (IN HOURS) ¹
	1-credit ²	2-credit	3-credit
Initial meeting/training	3	6	9
Independent work across semester ³	40	80	120
Final meeting/presentation of findings	2	4	6
Total minimum time investment	45	90	135

¹Students are expected to log time spent unless working alongside instructor

²Most students should expect a 1-credit 3193 course

³The type of work varies by semester and by student

